

Rule 9072-1

ORDERS -- PROPOSED

(a) All proposed orders shall carry a full, descriptive title detailing the nature of the motion or application ruled upon and shall state the date of the hearing.

(b) No proposed order or judgment will be signed where the date or signature is the only text on a page.

(c) All orders should carry the full case number and set forth the judge's complete signature block and should be submitted within three (3) days after the date of the hearing.

(d) Proposed orders should also recite the events that resulted in the entry of the order with phrases such as "after a hearing," "after due notice and no response having been filed," or "after due notice and a consent having been filed." Likewise if orders involve real estate that is property of the estate, a full and complete legal description is required.

Notes of Advisory Committee

2004 Amendment

This amendment allows Electronic Filing Users to submit proposed orders to the Court by electronic means. The Clerk will be responsible for setting up an electronic acceptance system in order to transmit proposed orders from parties to judges' chambers.

1997 Amendment

This amendment conforms the existing Local Rules to the uniform numbering system prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States and to the model system suggested and approved by the Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules of the Judicial Conference's Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure. In renumbering the Local Rules to conform to the uniform numbering system, no change in substance is intended. This amendment was effective on April 15, 1997.

This rule was formerly Local Rule 2.11. The Advisory Committee Notes to the superseded rules may be helpful in interpreting and applying the current rules.

1995 Amendment

The amendments are stylistic. No substantive change is intended.

These amendments were effective on February 15, 1995.
